

PRINCIPALSHIPS

MATER DEI COLLEGE, EDGEWATER

Mater Dei College, Edgewater, is a Catholic co-educational College serving several neighbouring parishes. From 2010 there will be some 1,050 students from Year 7 - 12.

Established in 1993 by the Catholic Education Commission of Western Australia the College has developed a rich program based on the pillars of Faith, Learning Service and Community. This focus is supported too through the College Board, the Parents and Friends' Association and wider parental involvement.

Students have notable success in traditional core areas as well as in Performing and Creative Arts, Design and Technology, Learning Technologies and Languages – Japanese and Indonesian. The students also enjoy access to a well resourced campus which supports the vibrant learning and teaching environment.

The Principal will be a creative and committed leader who will work collaboratively with the community in meeting both contemporary educational needs and planning for ongoing development.

The successful applicant for this position will be required to commence on 1 January 2010.

Applicants need to be practising Catholics and experienced educators committed to the objectives and ethos of Catholic education. They will have the requisite theological, educational, pastoral and administrative competencies, together with an appropriate four year minimum tertiary qualification, and will have completed Accreditation for Leadership of the Religious Education Area or its equivalent. A current WACOT registration number and a Working With Children clearance form must also be included.

The official application form, referee assessment forms and instructions can be accessed on the Catholic Education Office website www.ceo.wa.edu.au. Enquiries regarding the position should be directed to Helen Brennan, Consultant, Workforce Relations Team on 6380 5237 or email wrd@ceo.wa.edu.au. All applications, on the official form, should reach The Director of Catholic Education, Catholic Education Office of Western Australia, PO Box 198, Leederville 6903. The closing date for all of these positions is 30 September 2009.
